German Syrup was made about fourten years ago. I contracted a cold which resulted in a hoarseness and ough which disabled me from filling my pulpit for a number of Sabbaths. After trying a physician, without obtaining relief I saw the without obtaining rener I saw the advertisement of your remedy and obtained a bottle. I received quick and permanent help. I never hesitate to tell my experience. Rev. W. H. Haggerty, Martinsville, N. J. &

The Rugged Child

is largely an "outdoor' product. Fresh air and exercise usually produce sound appetite and sound sleep. chil-Sickly obtain dren after the mail, unless it was stormy.

allowed to come ashore there.

I was rigid in my determination on this point, for had not one Isabella

Ventnor told me two weeks before I bought the island that she did not think I was the kind of a man any woman ought to marry?

She had, and for that I had for-

As I say, I was supremely happy all by myself, excepting, of course, the hurt Isabella had done me, and I think that was healing slowly, when one night the entire scheme was over-

The light showed me Henry covered with blood, his throat slashed, lying there dead ordying, as I supposed.

What to do I did not know, for the "Go down stairs and get that ax," I in a minute. We've done up one of 'em and now we've got to do up the other, so there won't be any tellin'

Then he laughed and I heard foot-steps down the hall and stairs.

I knew there was no help for me there and only a chance anywhere, and I took that. One window of my room opened out on a back roof and from that it was only a short distance

I had one chance in a million of es-ly, but I did not think of that. It was life, and life is very sweet to us, even though some fair Isabella may have

Over the rocks and stones I flew,

What brought me to my senses omewhat was my rushing into the water, and at first I thought of swimming out and trying to reach the mainland, but I was only a poorswim-mer and I knew I should be drowned or caught and knocked on the head in the water by the burglars as a hunter might knock a muskrat on the head, and the horror of it drove me back

Then I thought of my boat, but be fore I started that way I remembered that my friends had moved it over to the mainland to return at daylight with the sailboat, leaving me only my rockets to signal the shore in case of need and what were signals now?

Only a means whereby the murderers might discover me.

One thinks rapidly at such moments,
I fancy, and all this took place in much less time than it requires to tell it; but there was time enough for the burglars to learn I was not in the room, and with their quick eyes see the window through which I had escaped, and I heard some of them coming along the course I had taken, and one going down toward my boat landing to cut me off there.

Then, aimlessly and utterly dazed I began to circle the little island, running on the beach. They could not see me and my bare feet made no noise in the sand and I rushed madly shead, when all at once I went down going I knew not where, thinking of slipped a drop of bitter into it.

nothing but escape.

Once out of the house

I had on only my pajamas, and the sharp stones cut my feet cruel-tales out of school."

sworn all women.

door and locked it.

of cod-liver oil with Hypophosphites, a fat-food rapid of assimilation and almost as palatable as milk.

"COLCHESTER" Spading Boot

GOOD CHANCE!

Oden to Typewriter for $10, if cash with order is received before Nov. 1st. 1893. The smous Odell Typewriter is used by Lawyers, Misisters, Doctors, Merchants, Editors and Jovernment Officers, because of its clean wist, simplicity and manifold copies. No seaher required. It will do your work in one tour's practice. Order now and take advantge of this exceptionally

GOOD CHANCE

MERCURIAL Mr. J. C. Jones, of Fulton, Arkansas, asysof "About ten years ago I contracted a severe case of blood pol-ed a severe case of blood pol-Leading physicians prescribed medicine medicine, which I took without any relief. after medicine, which took without a labo tried mercurial and potash remedies, with unsuccessful results, but which brought on an attack of mercurial rheumatism that made my life one of agony. RHEUMATISM After suffering four years I gave up all remedies and began using S. S. S. After taking several bottles I was entirely cured and able to resume work.

S.S.S. poisoning to-day on the market."

revolvers in the house or had none, the revolver being too noisy a weapon for burglars as a rule.

Whatever the cause, they did not fire, and I did not wait for it, at least that close. A hundred feet out I began to be myself once more and I topped rowing.

"Why don't you come on," I shouted back, half hysterically.
"Hold on," they yelled, and I could D EOPLE said I was hear them running up and down the shore in the darkness.

very foolish when "Oh, you're all right," I laughed willy. "I'll come back and take you I bought a ten acre island three miles from the shore and built mysummer house the first their guns, I rowed away as fast as I could for the mainland.

Likhink I made that three miles in I think I made that three miles in on it, but I laughed and said half the record, and when I found the quiet was what is first policeman he was for running me in as a lunatic or a sieep walker; but it, far from the knew me, and as soon as I told my there I would have it, far from the maddening crowd's ignoble strife. Being a bachelor, with few wants, I took with me only my man Henry, who was an excellent housekeeper who was an excellent housek more than the first four weeks I spent on the island. In the morning I took to see the house. We saw no burglars, however, nor to the water, or took a walk for an hour or so; then I wrote for three hours, and the afternoons I read and leafed, and at night I slept. Some days I would row over to the mainland, and every day Henry went over moment to flush a burglar or get a shot from ambush. Sometimes I had a friend or two to drive with me, but no woman was

As we came up to the house one of the burglars appeared in the doorway and was covered on the instant by a dozen guns. "Come in gentlemen; come right in," he said, cheerily. "We were expecting you, and we've got a nice breakfast The man's coolness almost gave me the hysterics, for I knew by the sound of his voice that he was the fellow who wanted to "fix" me. "But he was uttering the truth-

"WITH ONE MORE TOUCH IT SLID OFF

sear owhis neck as a memento.
"There were four in the lot and we only arms in the house were across the hall and the burglars had me shut off from that direction and were rapidly demolishing my door.

They swore and pounded, entirely regardless of the ordinary rules of burglary, for they knew that so far away from the shore they were perfectly the state of the shore they were perfectly the shore the shore they were perfectly the shore they were perfectly the shore the shore they were perfectly the shore the shore the shore the shore they were perfectly the shore the shore the shore the s soon had them handcuffed, and then was not pleasant.

"You're a queer gang,' said the lieutenant of police to the leader, who had invited us to breakfast. 'What did you do this for?' heard one of them say, "and we'll have this d—d door out of the way

"The breakfast, you mean?"

down my cheeks, and even the police-best thing possible for themselves and the very unique plan they had adopted was in their favor, and of necessity they only got ten years apiece, Henry not taken into the count at all.

Henry, as it stood, and he lives there with his wife, respected and admired, I do believe, by every burglar in the guild, for he holds them in the high-

A Relie of General Marion. Henkels by General Marion's descend- of ants in South Carolina.

The widow Flapjack got a new boarder the other day. At the first meal he took he choked and had a terrible time trying to swallow some she asked, kindly. "Nothing, except that coffee went

-Texas Siftings.

FUN ON THE DRAMATIC LAD-DER'S LOWEST RUNG.

The Fake Trunk Sale - Robbing the Sleeping Landlerd-How to Soften a Land Watch, From Her Dead Mother.

Anyone who knows the look of the "barnstormer" can tell him at a giance. It is the fine days that bring him out. Little is seen of him on wet and rainy days, but give old Sol just half a chance and you won-der at the array of immaculate linen, cigarettes and Prince Alberts exhib ited by these fly-by-night whose ways of securing an existence any signs of them, though I knew I had them penned up on the island, and escape was impossible. We waited until daylight, and then, deployed as skirmishers, the policemen began to move across the island, expecting any moment to dush a burgles of a twenty-five dollar bank roll and sevtelling the conductors a story calculated to soften a heart of steel. They ware river have touched the accommodating ticket puncher for three cents each with which to pay their ferry-fare.

stranded near this city, says the Philadelphia Times, and all but the leading man returned to New York, he remained with headquarters at the hotel in which he was stopping, expecting, as he told the country landlord, a money order from his wife. At the end of three weeks no morey order had made its appearance, and the Thespian's trunk was taken into the store room as securety by the hotel man. The day following this move a young lady alighted from the train and registered at the hotel, and in a very short time became acquainted with the leading man. She wanted to buy a trunk. He would sell her one, and stated to the inn-keeper that he had a chance to sell his trunk, and gave him the impression that the proceeds of the sale should apply on his board bill. The trunk was removed to the actor's room, where the contents were taken out of it and wrapped in paper, after which the lady was called in to examine the "keister." She was in love with the style and make of it and paid the actor $10 in cash for the same The bundles were lowered out of the window by the actor and expressed to Philadelphia. The lady paid her bill at the hotel, amounting to one dollar, and that afternoon left for this city in company with the leading man, who was none other than her husband, and in whose pocket quietly was dead only needed repairs, so we rehere bimeby to look fer us, and prob- been the property of the confiding hotel keeper, and who, to this day, to give the country hotel-keeper an a bad humor, but this candid state- order for the amount of his bill, payable at the box office in the town to and I laughed until the tears ran be next played, to which place they agree to pay his railroad fare. They reach the town in the early hours of of course the burglars had done the the morning and the traveling hotel man is put to bed with the company's manager, who lies awake until he is assured that his companion and credthey only got ten years apiece, heary testifying so earnestly to their politeness and care that that part of it was and in a few moments is in possession of the order he has given on the But I can assure you I did not go box office, having extracted it from back to the island again. I gave it to the clothe: of the unsuspecting sleeper, who when he discovers his loss, has nothing left but to return home

Another dodge resorted to by these Oh, yes, I almost forgot When this water-tank kings to defraud the story came out in the papers and my country hotel-keeper is known as the part of it was set forth, as only re- watch trick and is worked in the folporters know how to do such things, lowing manner: The company, whose Isabella, of course, heard of it, and advance agent has been called upon one moonlight night she said to me:
"Major, I thought once you were to purchase cigarettes for all members has played one week in a country." not the kind of a man for a woman to bers, has played one week in a counmarry, but I've changed my mind." try town and owes a board bill of I feel under obligations to those $40. The manager informs the innburglars myself. - Detroit Free Press. keeper that he is unable to pay, owing to the bad business done that week, and tries to hit upon a means An interesting relic of the revolu- of settlement, offering his note, tionary war came into the possession which of course is not accepted by of Stan V. Henkels, of Philadelphia mine host, who likewise refuses to It is a large silver-pointed star, with accept an order on the box office of a square cross in the center, sur- the next town. Finally the manager, rounded by a ring of red enamel. It as a last resort, tells the inn-keeper formed the head ornament of the war formed the head ornament of the war horse that bore General Francis—the leading lady—to give up her Marion—otherwise the "Swamp Fox" watch as security for the board bill. through the world-renowned cam- and departs for his wife's room, repaign in the Carolinas during the turning shortly with the information struggle of the colonies for freedom. that he could not persuade his wife This relic, together with another to part with her watch, as it was a similar to it, except that it was made wedding present from her dead The landlord has seen watch, which this pair fakirs has taken good care to show and praise, the proprietoress of the hotel is madly in love with it. "I'll tell you what we will do," exclaims the manager after several moments of apparently deep meditation, "suppose you go and see her, and possibly tween the two of us we can get her to give it up without much trouble." Thereupon the two proceed to the room of the actress, and explain their mission, while she, between tears and sobs, tells how her mother paid $159 for the watch and pre-shore, but they had either left their BARNSTORMER TRICKS. by many theatrical managers as above explained. It is needless to state that the leading lady had another wedding present of a similar kind in the tray of her trunk.

LOBSTERS AND CRABS.

Peculiar Features About the Appetizing Specimens of Crustaces. The lobster is much more agile than the crab, and having whatever food he can find within a pot, clambers about the netting until he discovers one of the ever open apertures in the sides, and then he passes once more into freedom. When fishing for lobsters, it is therefore necessary for the men to examine their pots as frequently as possible. Crabs, being slower in their movements, do not so readily escape. and an extra good haul is anticipated if the pots are unraised for a longer period than usual.

Lobsters are not only evilly dis posed toward crabs, but, sad to say, they do not bear good will to one an other. As soon as they are safely landed their formidable nippers are encircled with a piece of string to prevent them mangling their neighbors. They are most pugnacious creatures. If two happen to meet in a confined space they will at once "make for" each other's eyes. In the words of an ancient, "They fight like men.

Perhaps it is because crabs are ess active than lobsters that the pot into which it is hoped the former will crawl must be moved to fresh ground every time they are examined; otherwise few or none will be caught. On the other hand, the pots for lobsters may be dropped on the very spot from which they were raised, without the subsequent catch

In the matter of food, our crustacean friends have dissimilar tastes, says Chambers' Journal, and this fact is manifested in the character of the bait used. The crab likes his meat to be quite fresh, while the lobster, in spite of the avidity with which, as we have seen, he will clean out the shell of a newly killed crab, prefers flesh that is decidedly "high." Indeed, the staler it is the more tempting it is to his appetite. The bait is placed between two leathern thongs, and is kept in its position by a sliding button. It formerly consisted mainly of portions of small fish, locally called butts," which were sent in great quantities from Lynn and Yarmouth. These, however, are much less plentiful than they were, and therefor plaice, codlings, or any other fish that happen to be hardy, are used.

During mediæval times a woman who had nothing when she was married escaped the responsibility of her debts. Women were then often married in a single garment to relieve themselves of indebtedness. A young and noble German lady of the sixdoubly sure, had the marriage ceremony performed while she was stand-ing in a closet entirely divested of ceremony was performed the groom in clothes provided by her husband and took her place at the marriage fenst.

What She Meant. "And you refuse me after all that you have said?" he continued.

"Because I am not rich?"

went on bitterly. "Oh, George! That was three months ago. I meant a cottage at a summer resort, you know.

Frogs Dry Up and Blow Away. Frogs are mainly juice. If they try to make more than a short journey away from moisture, in a drought they will perish for want of water; and then their bodies will dry away. The frog's bones are so soft that he scarcely leaves any skeleton.

TRUTHS AND TRIFLES.

ed to have appeared in the streams of Mount Whitney in California.

The largest photograph in the world is seventeen feet by fifty inches. It is of a relief map of the United States, highlands, where shoes are seldom worn at an earlier age than 12 or 13. There is a rumor that a 10-inch that has heretofore awakened the tion of paintings and bric-a-brac, now in the museum of fine arts at Boston. is probably the finest ever placed there by an individual.

has been kept all these centuries in a temple near Yokohama. Photographers are interested in the telephoto lens, to be used principally in long-distance photography. Objects focused at a distance of three or four

There is a legend as old, if not much older, than the Christian religion, that ocean waves break in regular series, and that the tenth is always the most tremendous, and, consequently, the one to be dreaded.

'The "Nonsleepers" is the name of a religious sect which flourished A. D. 412. They lived in communities of seventy each, and at least seven in each were always found awake chanting the "sleep song."

***********

Nothing can be substituted for the Royal Baking Powder and give as good results.

No other leavening agent will make such light, sweet, delicious, wholesome food.

*

A SAD MISTAKE.

to Did Not Matter, However, as no One Knew of It.

Mrs. Foster was from New England, and regarded life very seriously, never shrinking or turning back from the path of duty which lay before but she never realized that French was at all necessary until she visited Paris. Then she had to rely on a phrase-book, which relieved her mind of all care, but greatly exercised the mental powers of the natives with whom she came in contact. Harper's Magazine relates that her nephew who was studying art in the French capital, secured for her an invitation to a reception given by a famous French artist. Mrs. Foster went accompanied by her nephew (and the phrase-book). thought she knew just where to open it and read her lines. She was introduced in French to the artist. He spoke in French, her nephew replied in French until the dear old lady got bewildered. But she felt that she must say something, so she opened the inevitable book and read off the first sentence that met her eye, giving it the true New Hamshire twang. The artist smiled sweetly, but as Mrs. Foster saw the translation in italies after the sentence she nearly fainted. As her nephew lead her away, however, he congratulated her upon her introduction and her knowledge of the language. "But, Henry," cried his horrified aunt, "Did you hear what I said? I asked him how soon we could get something to eat—that's what I asked him-in French."

Her nephew smiled; he would have liked to laugh. "Oh!" he replied. "did you? Well. auntie, it doesn't matter, for he asked me what in thunder you said, and I told him I didn't know."

The Amick Discovery.

On another page of this issue is an exhaustive article on the treatment and cure of consumption. The subject has lately been brought to the attention of the press of the entire country as a result of the action of the Michigan Board of Health in declaring consumption a contagious dises 2, and recommending the isolation of affected persons to special hospitals creeted for the purpose. Should other state boards of health follow the example of the Michigan body, it seems impossible to measure what the consequences would be. The New York Recorder, actuated by that spirit which should pervade every editorial sanctum, offered a reward of $1,000 to any physician effecting a cure for consumption. The offers was promptly accepted by Dr. W. R. Amick of Cincinnati, who had already distinguished himself by curing some patients selected by the Cincinnati Post, newspaper. The management of the Recorder selected ten patients in various stages of consumption. The article referred to tells the story of Dr. Amick's success and of the payment of the $1,000 by the Recorder company. Dr. Amick shows not only his willingness but his great desire to have his company. Dr. Amick shows not only his willingness but his great desire to have his treatment impartially tested before any money for the medicines has been expended by the affected. He offers to send to all by the affected. He offers to send to all local physicians, regardiess of school or code or creed, test packages of his medicines sufficient to show just what results will be produced in each case. The fact that these outfits are only sent to the patient through his or her physician is a guarantee that they will stand the test to which they may be subjected by medical experts. Dr. Amick is willing to let each physician and each patient judge as to whether he has accomplished what he claims. There is already the testimony of physicians and patients who have found reasons for endorsing the discovery. In the face of such evidence of its worth there can be but little hesitancy in pronouncing the discovery a great boon to suffering mankind, and therefore of incalculable benefit to the whole human race.

A New Oil From Hens' Eggs. Extraordinary stories are told of the healing properties of a new oil which is easily made from the yolk of hens' eggs. The eggs are first boiled hard, and the yolks are then removed, crushed and placed over a fire, where they are carefully stirred until the substance is on the point of catching fire, when the oil separates and the oil may be poured off. One yoke will yield nearly two teaspoonfuls of oil. It is in general use among the colonists of South Russia as a means of curing cuts, bruises, Fourteenth Century Chests.

The earliest chest was simply the trunk of an oak tree scooped out and cut down the middle, one half serving as a lid, which was at first kept closed by a strap of leather, and later by one made of iron. As late as the fourteenth century the oak chest, in addition to being a repository for valuables, served as a seat, and sometimes also as a table.

Fact Worth Remembering. There are many such of course, but here is on There are many such of course, but here is one which specially commends itself to invalids, viz., that in order to acquire vigor, the basis of health, that invigoration is only possible by re-establishing the functions of digestion and assimilation upoe a permanent basis. Stomachies in name are numberless. They impart a slight stimulus to appetite—nothing beyond this. Much more is required, and Hostetter's Stomach bitters "alls the bill". This time-howered standard invigorrequired, and Hostetter's Stomach Sitters "aims the bill." This time-honored standard in vigorant builds up an enfeebled physique and protects it against disease by insuring the thorough conversion of the alument received into the stomach into blood and bodily tissne, Clothed with increasing strength through this unfailing agency, the system is defended against influences prejudicial to health. Use the Bitters in malaria, theumatism, kidney and liver trouble and constitutions.

When a man brags he can tell a person's character by the color of his hair, it is not right to steer him up against a man who wears

A Sone Throat or Cough, if suffered to progress, often results in an incurable throat or lung trouble. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give instant relief.

A Texas editor is justly indignant. He writes: "We don't mind taking courtesy occasionally in payment for subscriptions, but we do object to having our subscribers send in a ten-year-old rocater with a note attached asking oredit for a spring chicken."

Parkhurst may be a great retormer in may way, but there is still a large field open to the grate reformer who will prevent it from getting clogged with cinders.

The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be contive or billous, the most gratifying results follow its use; so that it is the best family remedy known, and every family should have a bottle on hand.

A train moving 35 miles an hour clears 50 feet in one second, or quicker than a man can jump across the track. Fools should paste this in their hats.

FRANK J. CHENEY MAKES OATH that he is the senior partner of the firm of F. J. CHENEY WAS CO., doing business in the city of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of CATARRH that caunot be cured by the use of HALL'S CATARRH CHES.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1886

A. W. GLEASON

Cigarette smoke is the best disinfectant known. No self-respecting microbe would linger where a postliential eigarette sucket has been.

A New York manufacturer advertises "The strongest and cheapest bed in the market." How about the onion bed?

BEECHAM's PILLS quickly cure sick head-ache, weak stomach, impaired digestion, con-stipation, disordered liver, etc.

If the Barby is Cutting Teeth, Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, Man. Winatow's Scotning Syster for Children Teething.

If the plumbers should strike this winter it will be the first instance where capital has

'Hanson's Magic Corn Salve," Warranted to cura or monsy refunite1.
our druggist for it. Price 15 cents.

Denver Directory.

40 BOOKS To introduce our Eight Page. illustrated farm and literary paper we give away scribers. Sample copy and List The Francisco

Second-Hand Brevier Body Type For Sale Cheap.

25 Cents a Pound. Place Your Order Now

WESTERN NEWSPAPER UNION.

93 West Jackson St., CHICAGO, ILL

Is the MASTE

lord's Hard Heart-The Leading Lady's too heavy for light work. The ladies are, as a rule, the possessors of good eral bundles-not trunks-of wardrobe. Of course they are in possession of their ability, which is not appreciated by New Jersey natives, and after making several stands, pursued by angry hotel-keepers, they go ashore on the rocks, and with one accord all noses point toward the Quaker City. The ladies have little trouble securing transportation, as they did have a nice breakfast for us ride, and before reaching the Delalarder) and not that only, but they had found that Henry was

INTO THE WATER. dead, and they had washed him and done what they could in earing for him, and had done it so well that he is alive to-day with only an ugly

we sat down to breakfast and enjoyed it, though I must confess that by this time the condition I was in physically

" 'And all the rest of it,' said the officer. "Well, cap'n' he replied, 'it's like this. We was here fer de swag, kill er no, and we thought we had killed the fust one, and, of course, the other one had to go, to stop talk. Then when he got away and had us penned up like rats we came to the conclusion that we had better git out the best way we could. The one we thought paired him, and we knowed you'd be trunk, which the day cape. In a minute I was out of the window, over the shed and on the ably comin out so early in the morn-> the white thing to do?" I had had enough to put most men in ment struck my funny bone somehow, of brass and was used by the gen- mother. eral's lieutenant, was sent to Mr.

A Dangerous Boarder.

"What's the matter, stranger?"

down the wrong way." "Good heavens! It isn't possible that I have secured a boarder with two throats, exclaimed the widow Flapjack, who has been complaining very bitterly of the amount of food a man with one throat can destroy.

being thereby lessened.

teenth century, to make assurance clothing. She put out her hand through the crack of the door and was thus married. As soon as the clergyman and witnesses left the room, she came out, arrayed herself

"Yes, George; that is why."
"Yet you said that you could be content with love in a cottage," he

A trout with golden scales is report-showing the petroleum districts. Some of the healthiest children in the world are found in the Scottish steam whistle will replace the bell students and called them to chapel at The late Frederick L. Ames' colle-

The oldest dress in the world be longed to an empress of Japan who lived in the thirteenth century, and it miles will show up distinctly on the ground glass.

To determine how many Italian men of letters knew English well enough her upon payment of this amount beautiful Japanese vases for the best Nervous Passenger—Why are you tel man, as he wants to become sole Princess." Shislandoni, the writer of

FRANK J. CHENEY.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN NEWS, published at Denver, Colo., is the only daily Populist paper in the nation. Its cartoon, apropos to the times, with every issue is worth the subscription, and it is full, fair and strong for the cause of reform. Daily, 50 cents per month; weekly, $1 a year is advance. Send 50 for a sample cony.

A man is very much like a razor, because you cannot tell how sharp he can be until he is completely strapped.

There are various modifications of mendacity. Simply to conceal the truth is to its in ambush. Shiloh's Consumption Cure Is sold on a guarantee. It cures Incipient Consumption. It is the best Cough Cure. Zets., 20cts. & $1.00.

Yale students are said to be extravagant in everything except their attendance upon See Colchester Spading Boots adv. in other column.

A hog may be a squenier but he never gives anything away.

fafficted with Thompson's Eye Water.

We have one thousand pounds of brevier body type in good condition, made of extra metal by Barahart Bros. & Spindler, manufacturers of the famous superior copper-mixed type. We will sell it in fonts of 109 pounds or more, to be deliv-ered as good as we get on our new, at the low price of

THE DAT ONE TO DR. BO-SAM-KO'S PILE REMEDIATE ON THE REMEDIATION OF THE REMEDIATE OF THE RE

and lifted it, so that with one more with a terrible crash over something on the beach. They were near enough to hear my fall and one of them "Here he is, Bill; we've got him; dhim for givin' us so much trouble, we'll fix him now." Treatise on Blood and the first of the first I almost shouted with joy when I made this discovery. It was their boat and once in it and on the water I was safe. By this time I could hear their footsteps along the shore, which was quite rocky and rough here, except the little bit of beach where the boat lay, and they could not make such headway as I did as they did not know the way through the rocks.

But they were coming fast enough and cursing at every step, and with the energy of despair, I caught the boat in my arms and tried to shove it into the water. But it would scarcely bades.

budge. Again and again I tugged; the blood almost bursting through my ears by the exertion and the skin tearing from my hands and bare arms.

So near, I thought, to safety and still the danger increasing every see. still the danger increasing every sec-Then as I heard an oath more ond. Then as I heard an oath more wicked than the others, as one of the burglars fell over a stone, I felt the boat move, and a little wave rolled in they are experienced in the art of Several years ago a company

ing you might be hungry. So, beggin' has never received one cent from the the gent's pardon fer trespassin', we proceeds of that sale. turned in and fixed you up a nice turned in and fixed you up a nice breakfast. Now wasn't that about these catch-as-catch-can managers is sented it to her on the day she was married to Mr. Furcollar, but that if there is no way out of it she will leave the watch for the amount of to translate Tennyson, the Coriere the bill, but it must be returned to della Sera of Milan offered a pair of